The Housing Development Consortium is partnering with the National Development Council and the Washington State Housing Finance Commission to bring NDC certificate training back to the Seattle-metro and King County region!

We are offering our members three sessions over the course of many months, at close to 40% off the listed NDC session price! If you are a member of HDC, please contact hdc@housingconsortium.org for the member discount code to be used at the time of registration checkout.

NDC training is intense and rigorous – with as many hours as an average college course. Students work through real case studies, analyzing and structuring them to reach real solutions.

Space is extremely limited! If you are planning to attend, REGISTER TODAY!
