

WASHINGTON STATE HOUSING FINANCE COMMISSION
LEASE RIDER FOR TAX CREDIT ARRA PROJECT
(to be attached to resident lease)

Property Name: _____

Unit: _____

Applicant/Resident Name: _____

Dear Applicant or Existing Resident:

Summary

The Owner of this property rents residential units under certain federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act Subsidy Programs (the "Program") as administered by the Washington State Housing Finance Commission (the "Commission"). Under the Program, the Owner qualified for federal financing by agreeing to rent some or all of the units in the property to low-income households and restricting the rents for those units. In addition the Owner may have agreed to reserve some of the units in the property for households or persons with special needs. (See the Special-Needs section below.) This rider was prepared to help residents understand the Program.

Income and Rent Limits

The Owner has agreed to reserve some or all of this property's units for households at or below 30, 35, 40, 45, 50 or 60% of the area median income. The property manager can provide you with this property's specific income set-asides. Note that the property may not have units available at the lowest income set-asides. The Program uses HUD income and rent limits based on a household's income set-aside and number of bedrooms in their unit. The Owner cannot charge more than the applicable rent limit for your unit. Ask the property representative for specific information.

Annual Recertification

To be eligible for a rent- and income-restricted unit, all income and assets of every household member must be documented and verified. The property's Owner or their agent will give you the required forms to declare and verify income and assets from all sources. They may also ask you for supporting documentation. The program requires each household to recertify or complete a new set of required forms at least once every 12 months.

Since this Program involves federal financing, the Commission and everyone involved with this Program is under growing pressure to prevent fraud. Your forms must be prepared carefully, with every question answered. Annually, you will be signing a document under penalty of perjury, saying that the information and verifications submitted are correct. Households who do not properly complete their paperwork may not qualify for residency or may be required to vacate their income- and rent-restricted unit.

A property that has more than one income/rent limit can switch a household to a higher or lower income/rent limit, based on the household's income at recertification. Ask the property representative for specific information.

Full-time Student Households

A household where each member is a full-time student may not qualify for an income- and rent- restricted unit. A household where everyone becomes a full-time student after move-in may no longer qualify for an income- and rent-restricted unit. Your household must notify management immediately if your student status changes. Any change in student status (for any household member) could jeopardize your household's ability to stay in your unit. Ask your property representative for specific information.

Special Needs (if applicable)

The Owner of this property may have chosen to reserve some of this property's units for households that have Special Needs. Units could be reserved for households that meet the Commission's criteria for Large Households, Persons with Disabilities, Elderly, Homeless Housing or Farmworkers. Households or individuals applying for one of these Special Needs units will be required to verify their eligibility. Ask your property representative for specific information.

Nondiscrimination

The property must comply with federal housing policy governing nondiscrimination and accessibility. In making an apartment available, the Owner cannot discriminate against you because of your race, creed, color, sex, national origin, marital status, age, disability or familial status. Furthermore, the Owner cannot discriminate against you based on the sources of your income (including Section 8 subsidy), provided the sources of income do not violate any federal, state or local law. Additional state, local laws or ordinances may also apply. When selecting residents, the Owner cannot apply standards to a potential resident that are more burdensome than standards applied to any other potential or existing resident.

Good Cause Evictions/Nonrenewals

The Owner is prohibited from evicting you and is prohibited from refusing to renew your lease or rental agreement, other than for "good cause." Generally, good cause shall mean the grounds for termination of tenancy. Such grounds are generally defined in federal regulations at 24 C.F.R. Section 966.4(l)(2) and are applicable except where disallowed by Section 42. These grounds include but are not limited to:

- Failure to make payments due under the lease;
- Criminal activity;
- Discovery after admission of facts that made the tenant ineligible;
- Discovery of material false statements or fraud by the tenant in connection with an application for assistance or with reexamination of income;

- Serious or repeated violations of material terms of the lease.

Any termination or non-renewal notice must state the specific factual violations and grounds for termination. Under federal law, you have the right to enforce this requirement in state court as a defense to any eviction action brought against you.
