

Utility Incentive Contact

WSHFC requires all bond/tax credit applicants to contact their projects utility(s) before submittal to inquire about and discuss energy efficiency incentives. We recommend reaching out to your utilities as soon as possible. These consultations and incentives can help offset the cost of building more energy efficient and comfortable buildings.

PROJECT

1. Project Name:

2. Project Address:

City:

State: WA

Zip:

3. Building Type:

☐

Individual Metered

☐

Master Metered

APPLICANT

4. Last Name:

First Name:

5. Job Title:

6. Organization:

7. Phone:

8. E-mail:

PROPOSED PROJECT UTILITIES

9.

☐

Electric Utility

☐

Combined Utility

10. Utility:

11. Name of Contact at Utility:

12. Phone:

13. E-mail:

14. Incentives Project is eligible for:

15. Incentives Project plans to use:

16.

☐

Natural Gas Utility

17. Utility:

18. Name of Contact at Utility:

19. Phone:

20. E-mail:

21. Incentive Project is eligible for:

22. Incentive Project plans to use:

23. Applicant Signature:

24. Date:

Utility Contact Information

If your project is in the following utility service areas, use the corresponding contact information to learn about energy efficiency incentives.

Seattle
City Light

Seattle City Light Energy Advisor

SCLEnergyAdvisor@seattle.gov

206-684-3800

PUGET SOUND ENERGY

Multifamily New Construction Program

PSENewConstruction@willdan.com

Multifamily Retrofit

MultifamilyRetrofit@pse.com

206-800-1489

Rebates Department

rebates@myavista.com

509-495-4728

To identify incentive contact information for utilities other than those listed above, visit:
<https://www.dsireusa.org/>, or contact energy@wshfc.org for assistance